NOTEWORTHY

■ Kathryn Fielding, daughter of Peggy and Tom Fielding of Newtown, has been named a United States National Award Winner in History and Government by the United States Achievement Academy. A student at Newtown High School, Fielding was nominated for the award by Candace C. Dlettera, a teacher at the school.

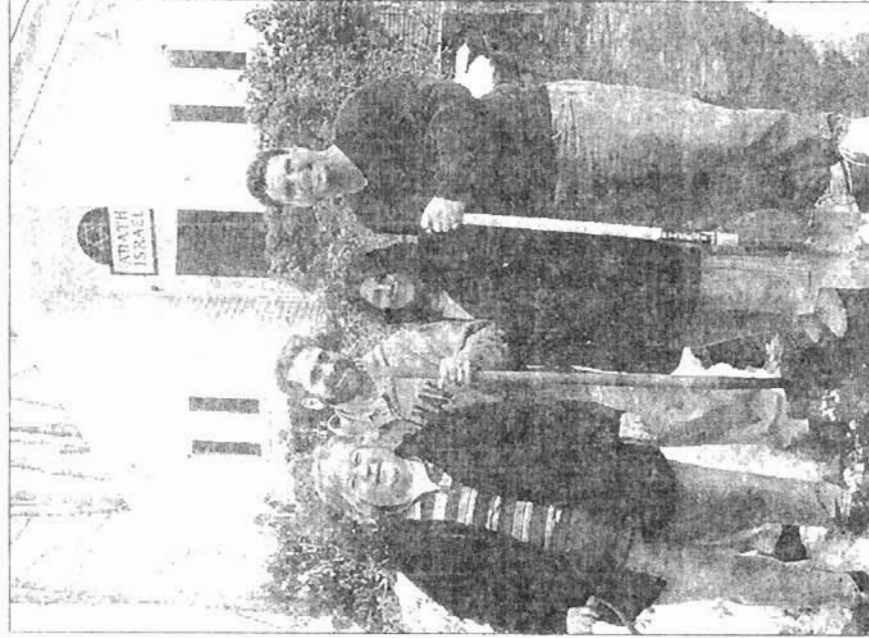

Casey L. Novak of Sandy Hook has accepted membership in the Golden Key International Honour Society and was individually honored during a ceremony at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst. Recognized for her high academic achievement, Novak is in the top 15 percent of her class — a requirement for those inducted into the society, which was founded more than 25 years ago in Atlanta, Ga. The society's mission is to provide top academic students with opportunities to grow further in the areas of leadership, career development, networking and service. Novak is a 2002 graduate of Newtown High School.

Connecticut Science Fair finalists

Synagogue events

Gearing up for groundbreaking ceremonies for Congregation Adath Israel's new synagogue and Hebrew school are, from left, Gilda Slomka, event co-chairman; Rabbi Shaul Praver; Beth Israel, event co-chairman; and Eric Israel, synagogue president. A dinner dance with a DJ, comedian and silent auction is set for April 9 at 6:30 p.m. at 707 On Main in Monroe. A groundbreaking ceremony with local dignitaries, a champagne toast and light lunch is set for April 10 at 12:30 p.m. at the temple, 111 Huntingtown Road. For more information, call (203) 426-2932 or (203) 264-0804.
