

NEWTOWN

Science research funding

Trout Unlimited, an environmental conservation organization, has partnered with Newtown High School to study water quality in Deep Brook, an environmentally sensitive river in Newtown. Trout Unlimited has awarded Newtown High School a check to fund equipment purchases for the project. From left are Frank LaBanca, science teacher; Bobby Grauer, student researcher; and Joe Hovious and James Belden, both from Trout Unlimited.

THE NEWTOWN BEE, FRIDAY, MAY 27, 2005

Trout Unlimited Funds NHS Research

Trout Unlimited, an environmental conservation organization, has partnered with Newtown High School to study water quality of Deep Brook, an environmentally sensitive river in Newtown. Trout Unlimited has awarded NHS a check to fund equipment purchases for the project. Pictured from left, Frank LaBanca, science teacher; Bobby Grauer, student researcher; and Joe Hovious and James Belden, both from Trout Unlimited.